MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Delegation of Management Responsibility for Active Guard Reserve (AGR) Warrant Officers

1. Effective immediately the Command Chief Warrant Officer – Army Reserve (CCWO-AR) will oversee the management of Active Guard Reserve (AGR) Warrant Officer assignments, Mandatory Removal Date (MRD) extensions within established congressional ceilings, and CW4/CW5 positions. Therefore, coordination with the CCWO-AR on these matters is required. The CCWO-AR will establish and oversee the selection process for AGR CW5 assignments and AGR Warrant Officer assignments above USARC. The CCWO-AR will establish and oversee the selection process for Command Chief Warrant Officers within the Army Reserve.
2. AGR CW4/CW5 requirements are directed requirements as determined by the US Army Reserve Command (USARC) Force Programs' Sergeant Major (SGM) and the CCWO-AR. The USARC FTS Directorate will document the positions listed in an annual report provided by the Force Programs SGM in January of each year.
3. Requests to establish a new CW4/CW5 requirement, or delete an existing CW4/CW5 requirement, must be submitted to the USARC Force Programs' SGM (ARRC-FD) with an annual suspense date of 1 November. The Force Programs' SGM will consolidate requests and forward to the CCWO-AR for approval.
4. Point of Contact (POC) is SGM Aaron D. Wade who can be reached at 404-464-8703 or aaron.d.wade@usar.army.mil.
